

MATTHEW TREMBLAY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF
GLOBAL OFFSHORE MARKETS

Matthew Tremblay serves as ABS Senior Vice President of Global Offshore Markets, based at ABS Corporate Headquarters in Houston. In his current role, Mr. Tremblay holds the global responsibility for strategic planning and client development within the offshore market sector.

Throughout his 23-year tenure at ABS, Mr. Tremblay has served in various engineering and leadership positions throughout the United States and Asia, including Pacific Division Vice President of Operations based in Singapore and Vice President of Engineering for the ABS Americas Division.

Mr. Tremblay graduated from the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, with a Bachelor's degree in Marine Engineering. He is also a member of the American Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers (SNAME).