

CHUCK KEMPER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF
HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

Chuck Kemper is Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer at ABS. He leads the global human resources function, technical learning organization, facilities and real estate, security, business resilience and travel for the organization. He has over two decades of experience in executive human resources leadership roles.

Prior to joining ABS in 2021, Kemper was Senior Vice President of Human Resources at Wood, where he led the function for its 17,000-person, $4 billion Asset Solutions Americas business. Before joining Wood, he served in roles as Vice President, Talent Management and Development, and Vice President of Human Resources, U.S. and Latin America, during a seven-year tenure at Worley. Prior to that, he worked 14 years for Aker Kvaerner, with his last role being Vice President of Human Resources for the global Oil, Gas, Process & Energy division.

Kemper graduated from Cornell University with a Bachelor of Science in Structural Engineering and received his MBA from Xavier University, where he was valedictorian. He lives in Cypress, Texas, with his family.