

ERGO VALVE (Valve Criticality Analysis)

- Category 1 – valves critical for safety or operations or are also used frequently for routine maintenance
 - Example
 - Emergency shutdown valves
- Category 2 – valves not critical for operations but required for routine maintenance
 - Example
 - Condensate drain valves
- Category 3 – valves not critical for operations and are infrequently used
 - Example
 - Valves used in drydock only

