

---

ILO Maritime Labour Convention (MLC) 2006

- The Convention is organized into three main parts:
  - The Articles, set out the broad principles and obligations.
  - The Regulations, which are written in very general terms, are complemented by the more detailed Code of the MLC, 2006.
  - The Code of the MLC, 2006 which has two parts: Part A (mandatory Standards) and Part B (non-mandatory Guidelines).
- The conventions is organized in 5 areas called Titles:
  - Title 1: Minimum requirements for seafarers to work on a ship
  - Title 2: Conditions of employment
  - Title 3: Accommodation, recreational facilities, food and catering
  - Title 4: Health protection, medical care, welfare and social security protection
  - Title 5: Compliance and enforcement